Sajjan Juman Dhendwal

Chairman, SHWT Pakistan

Sajjan Juman Dhendwal is a man deeply rooted in a family tradition of service to others. The spirit of compassion that defines him is a legacy passed down from his hardworking father, Juman Dhendwal, and his inspirational grandfather, Kalu Dhendwal.

In 1991, the Dhendwal family's move from Hyderabad to Karachi marked a turning point in Sajjan's life. Witnessing the power of selfless acts, his father established Sajjan & Company, a company that transcended business by providing employment opportunities and using its profits to uplift those in need, regardless of their background. Inspired by this family legacy and driven by a personal desire to contribute further, Sajjan registered the Sajjan Humanity Welfare Trust in 2023. This platform serves as a dedicated channel, offering assistance to individuals facing various life challenges. Sajjan's commitment is particularly noteworthy because he comes from a minority community. However, his dedication extends beyond personal affiliations, encompassing all communities in Pakistan. This unwavering commitment to unity and collective well-being is deeply embedded in the trust's core values.

The trust's services are a testament to its dedication to inclusivity and compassion. From facilitating marriages for underprivileged children to providing care for the sick and disabled, distributing wheelchairs, ensuring dignified burials, and supporting orphans, every initiative is rooted in the principle of non-discrimination. Furthermore, Sajjan's focus extends beyond his own community. He firmly believes in supporting all communities within Pakistan, advocating for unity and collective well-being. This principle forms the cornerstone of the trust, striving to transcend barriers and foster a spirit of inclusivity.

Sajjan, along with his dedicated team united by a shared vision of inclusivity, has worked tirelessly for many years. Their focus is on the shared humanity that binds us all, disregarding superficial differences and embracing the commitment to making a positive impact. As they reflect on their journey, the strength derived from their impact fuels an unyielding commitment. Their pledge is clear: to continue working relentlessly for Pakistan and to serve humanity with even greater dedication.

Join us on this meaningful journey with Sajjan Humanity Welfare Trust. Together, let's weave a tapestry of compassion and build a brighter, more equitable future for all, regardless of background or ethnicity.
